Energy Incentive Program

December 3, 2021

On October 4th, 2021, Governor Pedro Pierluisi announced the Energy Incentive Program with the purpose to assist small and medium business in the development of energy conservation initiatives and green energy investments ("Program"). This alert will summarize criteria for eligibility and the application process.

In general

The Puerto Rico Department of Economic Development and Commerce (DEDC) will receive applications of eligible small and medium sized businesses ("PYMES" for their Spanish acronym). The incentive will amount up to $25,000 and aims to help stabilize business operations and reduce the cost and energy consumption in the long term.

The Program will be divided in two phases for registration, Phase 1 (eligible suppliers); and Phase 2 (eligible beneficiaries).

Who qualifies?

A business that generates an average sales volume of $5 million or less during the three taxable years preceding the current Tax Year. Applications for beneficiaries will be evaluated considering factors such as location, economic sector, and the savings of the project.

Phase I: Eligible Suppliers must meet the following criteria:

- must provide evidence of being a PYMES (financial statements or tax returns)
- provide evidence of experience and capabilities (professional credentials and key personal resumes)
- merchant Registration
- evidence of Payroll (minimum of 3 employees)
- no debt Certification from the PR Treasury Department
